

Support for Entry to and Departure from Port

<Concept>

Provision of information necessary for entry to or departure from ports.

<Roles>

Shore-based organizations provide information necessary/useful for entry to or departure from port such as navigation plan of another ship that occupies the port.

<Benefits>

Ships intending to enter to a port can obtain information relating to the port (berth) and then adjust its plan based on the information.

